Caring Hands will not be held liable for issues resulting from aggressive behavior, provided reasonable care and precautions are taken. Owner authorizes Caring Hands to use reasonable precaution against injury, escape, or death of any animal. Owner(s), or guardian(s), will be consulted and given suggestions pertaining to aggression, however Caring Hands reserves the right to prohibit any animal from attending daycare. Such determinations shall be made at the sole discretion of the Caring Hands Staff.

2) DISCLOSURE:

I have disclosed any and all known medical and/or other conditions, including but not limited to: personality or behavioral traits that may affect, prevent, or limit, animal(s) ability to be groomed, boarded, participate in daycare, puppy nursery, or training classes, or otherwise visit Caring Hands as a Guest.

3) GUEST MEALS:

Caring Hands provides Science Diet brand food, or owners may provide food of their choice at no additional charge. If owner elects to provide food, an adequate amount for the duration of the stay, sealed in a reasonably sized container labeled with animal's first and last name and feeding instructions, must be provided. Caring Hands will feed all guests in accordance with instructions provided in the Hospitality Suite Application. However, we cannot accept raw or freeze dried food as a food source. Pets must be on a diet free of raw or freeze dried ingredients for 14 days prior to being admitted for their stay or group activity. Caring Hands may also provide the occasional treat of food not labeled for pets, such as peanut butter in order to entice a pet to eat and/or having trouble taking prescribed medications.

4) PERSONAL PROPERTY:

Owner accepts responsibility for all personal items left at Caring Hands. Caring Hands will not be responsible or liable for lost or damaged personal property, including, but not limited to; leashes, collars or toys. We cannot accept personal bedding or blankets during a pet's stay due to sanitary concerns.

5) MEDICATION ADMINISTRATION:

Oral medications will be administered at no charge. Injections or ear-administered medications will be given by one of our Doctors or Technicians for a fee. All veterinarian prescribed medications must be provided in their original containers. All supplements or herbs, not prescribed by a veterinarian, such as omega fatty acids, glucosamine, etc., can be administer if presented in the original bottle with written instructions.
